

SURVEYORS HOUSE

AT RICS WESTMINSTER

Sensational Summer Parties

Set above Parliament Square, the 5th Floor Roof Terrace at Surveyors House is the only private outdoor terrace overlooking Parliament Square, offering a rare setting for summer events in Westminster.

Guests can enjoy Bolney's English sparkling and still wines, produced at one of England's longest-established vineyards in the Sussex countryside, as Big Ben glows in the evening light, with Westminster Abbey and the Supreme Court's Gothic rooftops stretching out around the terrace.

The space lends itself to relaxed entertaining, informal drinks, team gatherings and group photographs, all framed by London's most recognisable landmarks.

As Searcys, we bring over 175 years of British hospitality, with seasonal menus and confident flavours designed to complement English wine.
